

We have been studying II Corinthians with a series “Unshakeable” since September. We only have two Sundays left. I invite you to pick up where we left off last Sunday—II Corinthians 12:11f.

We have been studying II Corinthians with a series “Unshakeable” since September. We only have two Sundays left. I invite you to pick up where we left off last Sunday—II Corinthians 12:11f.

- vv. 11-13 ~ He’s the real deal
- vv. 14-18 ~ Spiritual father and genuine companions
- vv. 19-21 ~ He fears relapse
- vv. 1-4 ~ Correction and discipline, if necessary
- vv. 5-6 ~ My heart burns – examine yourself
- vv. 7-10 ~ Build you up

1) The meaning —

2) The big picture —

3) The verse —

How?

- * An honest look inside
- * The help of the Holy Spirit
- * A handwritten spiritual inventory
- * A heartfelt confession

I Corinthians 11:27-28

Communion

Reflective Questions:

1. What tends to squeeze God out of your life? What is something that hinders your pursuit of God?
2. Is there anything in II Corinthians 12:11-13:10 that stirs your heart? Why? Why is personal examination so important? Why is it often neglected?
3. Read Psalm 139:23 & 24 and/or Matthew 7:3-5 and/or I Corinthians 11:27-28 and share what you learn about the importance of looking inside. What is God saying to you through this study?

Next Sunday, May 14 - Mother’s Day

Honor Mothers, enjoy a photo booth and be blessed by our worship gathering with music and a message entitled “What a Beautiful Name.”
