

Psalm 145

1. Disciples Life Dynamic
Inspired alone
Expressed in community
2. Psalm 145:1-3
Declaring our intentions
Adjusting our mindset
3. Together in a group we are: vv. 5-7
 - a. Reminded
 - b. Affirmed
 - c. Celebrated
 - d. Guided back
4. A generation lost Judges 2:10
5. Mental Hygiene—Story: Divorcee rejected on first date
6. What type of people can be inspired and empowered?
Common and ordinary Acts 4:13
7. What is the point? All people to know Psalm 145:11-12
8. Don't deny anyone Leviticus 19:33-34

Questions:

1. What we feed our minds makes a difference. What are some ways we program our minds for the better and for the worse?
2. Though it may be rare, describe how you have felt when you have walked away from these types of conversations: a. Critical and angry discussions?
b. Thankful and encouraging discussions?
3. Describe the impact the above discussions have on a community of people.
4. We enjoy what Psalm 145:7-9 says, and yet we can find it so challenging to model these in our own lives. When you have modeled these traits of God, what prompted you to do so?

